HARRIET FLETCHER FISHER
July 6, 1918 – August 4, 2008

Our Historian, Our Neighbor, Our Friend

Harriet Fletcher Fisher served as the Grand Marshal of the annual Stars and Stripes Parade on July 19, 2008, a tribute to her depth of knowledge of local history and the countless writings she did on the subject. Always happy to share her knowledge, Harriet wrote six books on the history of the area. Though blessed by this legacy, we will surely miss Harriet's uncanny ability to recite our past.
